

GRADUATE THEOLOGICAL UNION

Where religion meets the world

THE THEOLOGY OF FORGIVENESS IN A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

THE SURJIT SINGH LECTURE IN COMPARATIVE RELIGIOUS THOUGHT AND CULTURE

The understanding of how forgiveness is expressed in different religious and cultural contexts is crucial when restoring broken relationships in today's world. Is "forgiveness" unique to Christianity? Why does Japan's apology for its wartime behavior fall flat? The lecture explores a peculiar pattern of Japanese psychology originating in medieval Buddhist traditions

Dr. Anri Morimoto

Professor & Chair,
Department of Philosophy and Religion
International Christian University (Japan)

Tuesday, April 13, 2010 • 7:00 p.m.

PACIFIC SCHOOL OF RELIGION • CHAPEL OF THE GREAT COMMISSION

1798 SCENIC AVENUE (AT LE CONTE) • BERKELEY

*Public reception at 6:00 p.m.
Pacific School of Religion's Badé Museum.*